

The Tudor Room

With its tall arched reclaimed stained glass feature windows, and crystal chandeliers the room oozes character, which is why it is utilised for the conducting of civil marriage ceremonies. The room has high ceilings, and the advantage of an acoustic partition to divide the room in half if required. It is an ideal space for the conducting of civil marriage ceremonies, larger meetings and presentations, and can accommodate up to 70 people for a served lunch or dinner.

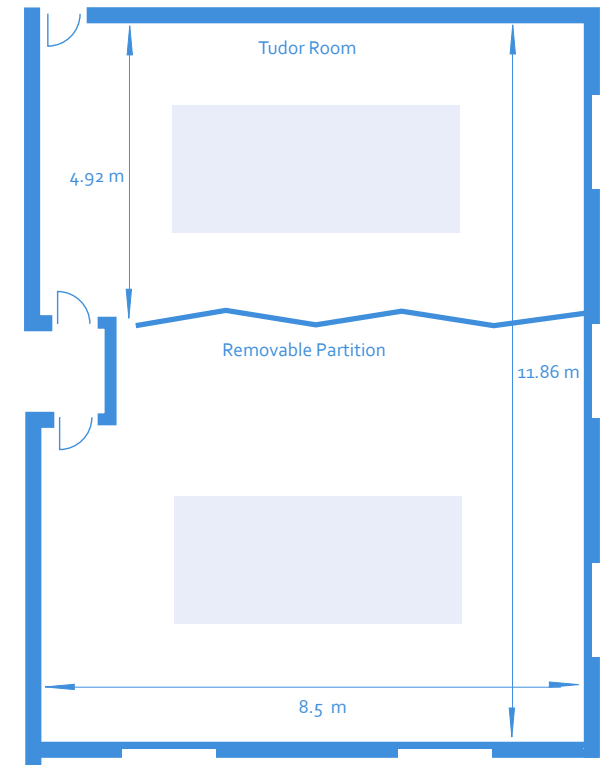

Layout A

Layout B

Layout C

These layouts are an indication of possible room layouts/use. We are happy to discuss and help plan for your specific requirements.